Dancing Ganesha is Newest Member of Twin Cities Originals

MINNEAPOLIS (Nov. 4, 2009) – The Twin Cities is known for celebrating different cultures and embracing new types of cuisine. Showcasing the flavors of South India, the Dancing Ganesha has joined more than 20 local independent restaurants as a member of Twin Cities Originals (TCO).

“Dancing Ganesha offers Twin Cities diners a unique taste of South Indian cuisine,” said Charlie Theros, president of TCO. “Promoting local, independent restaurants – such as Dancing Ganesha – is TCO’s ultimate goal. While we may be competitors, pooling our resources to market and promote the independent dining experience is what benefits each TCO restaurant.”

Dancing Ganesha’s Culinary Engineer Chef Sudhaker incorporates the bold and healthy flavors of South Indian cuisine into every dish. From Okra Masala to Tandoori Chicken, the Dancing Ganesha brings the unique South Indian flavors to the Twin Cities in style. Dancing Ganesha specializes in flavorful bar food, with its own Naan Bar, and drinks, like the Ginger Martini and Mango Mojito, created by top mixologists.

Patrons of Dancing Ganesha can now take advantage of TCO’s new rewards program. For more information about TCO and participating restaurants, please visit www.tcoriginals.com

About Twin Cities Originals

Twin Cities Originals (TCO) was formed in 2002 by a group of local, independently owned restaurants in response to the growing number of chain restaurants. The organization fosters an environment in which independent Twin Cities’ dining establishments can grow and flourish. In 2001, the number of chain restaurants grew to outnumber independently owned restaurants and continues to threaten the local dining environment. Though all members of TCO are competitors, more than 20 restaurants have come together to preserve the true spirit of original Twin Cities dining.
